

Instructor Development (Recertification)

Note: Effective April 2020, the Instructor hierarchy system is no longer in place. Instructors are required to attend a separate recertification course for each discipline that they wish to instruct.

Step 1: Check prerequisites

Pre-requisite(s):

- A current CRC First Aid Instructor certification
- Have taught a minimum of three Canadian Red Cross First Aid Program courses during the three-year certification period.
- One course must have been taught in each discipline the Instructor is seeking recertification (course taught must be at the highest level of certification within each discipline, recertification courses also qualify).

Note: There may be additional requirements set by local legislators. Please check legislation in your area for additional requirements.

Note: Courses which were taught in combination (e.g. Standard First Aid and CPR C) do not count as separate courses for the purpose of recertification prerequisites.

Step 2: Classroom Components

Course Instructor: Instructor Trainer certified to the level of Instructor recertification sought:

- First Aid & CPR program (CPRIT, FAIT)
- Wilderness & Remote First Aid program (WRFAIT)
- Professional Responder program (FRIT, EMRIT)

Pre-requisite(s): Step 1

Course Length (Minimum Teaching Hours):

Hub: 4 hours

First Aid & CPR Spoke: 4 hours

Professional Responder Spoke: 4 hours

Wilderness & Remote First Aid Spoke: 4 hours

Note: All Instructors— regardless of discipline—must attend the Hub section only once.

Note: Virtual classroom recertification courses cannot be combined with in-person classroom recertification courses.

Minimum Instructor Trainer to Candidate ratio: 1:4

Maximum Instructor Trainer to Candidate ratio: 1:12

Completion Criteria:

- Must attend and participate in the Hub section of the recertification course
 - Successfully demonstrate selected discipline-specific clinical and instructional skills
 - Adhere to the Canadian Red Cross Standards of Behaviour and the Group Charter (created in class)
 - Attend and participate in 100% of the course—this includes active, directed contributions at all scheduled sessions
